

Lion Pride Summer Enrichment 2022

Students entering grades 1-6 learned through observing and exploration this summer. Students in grades 1, 2 and 3 visited Riverside Dairy then had a tasty treat at Duff's Dairy Treat. Students in grade 4-6 went fishing after learning about the freshwater habitat. All students played a round of mini-golf at Shipwreck Amusements in Cortland. Some students also visited the Rogers House and Alice's Dowry for the Arts for continued learning about our past. Please see the article about that experience in this issue.

Summer School/Camp at CCS has meant third and fourth graders took the time to visit us, and these are the things they did:

~walked through half of the bridal display of local dresses and artifacts at the 1850's Rogers House

~learned about the library with Mrs. Nettleton and Miss Tina

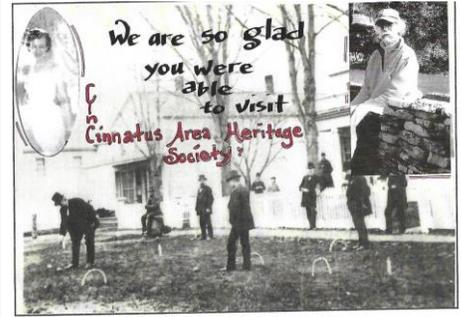

~played a little croquet on ADA's side lawn

~learned about dry stone wall building with Dale Taylor

~walked through the remaining half of the bridal display at Alice's Dowry for the Arts

All told, we have reached 20 youngsters and 3 teachers with new learning about local history. We believe, and our followers will doubtless underline this: If children don't have memories of our town's past, it will fade in remarkably sad ways. We are all about preservation of local history--in our exhibits and in the minds of children.

The bridal exhibit is open to the public (by appointment) through mid August. On August 6th all doors will be open between 10 a.m. and 3 p.m.

Summer Enrichment was a great experience for the students. My students learned about the lifecycle of frogs. We went fishing at Mrs. Pierce's family pond and the students loved it. I took my class to the ADA house and learned about local history. I loved teaching this group of students. At the end we went to Shipwreck Glow mini golf. The students enjoyed their experiences of Summer Enrichment.

The Kindergarten class had a great experience learning about the ocean through lots of hands on activities and crafts. They came to class every day excited to see what they would be doing and learning about. They really enjoyed the field trips too.

Finding the right seat for children is a challenge , but once it is found the option of a different seat vs. a regular chair often works.
