LETTER TO THE COMMUNITY

Dear Residents,

The $18,083,349 proposed budget contains an increase of 5.1% or $879,716. Revenue estimates include a Foundation Aid increase of $534,559 and a Tax Levy increase of 1.0% or $39,268, an amount below the available tax levy limit. Also, we have an additional Payment in lieu of Taxes (PILOT) for our second solar farm bringing the total PILOT revenue to $30,188.

The major budget to budget increases are as follows:

- $40,931: Personnel and Legal Services
- $312,179: Teaching and Instruction
- $196,524: Benefits (Teacher Retirement System, Employee Retirement System, Health Insurance, Workers Compensation, Unemployment)
- $95,999: Transportation

The following expense reductions occurred:

- -($20,813): Employee Benefits (Savings created by shared employees with neighboring district)
- -($10,579): BOCES Services

This proposed budget maintains all current programs for our students for 2022 - 2023.

The District has been allocating Federal dollars for one-time purchases to help combat learning loss, add enrichment opportunities for our students, and provide summer learning. These dollars are NOT incorporated into the budget but instead are in addition to it. These Federal funds help our District provide unique prospects for our students and community while not impacting the tax payer.

Please mark your calendars for these important dates:

- Tuesday, May 10, 2022 at 7:00 PM in the Wilbur Auditorium: 2022–2023 Budget Hearing
- Tuesday, May 17, 2022 from noon to 8:00 PM:
   School Budget Vote and Board of Education Elections
